THE CITY OF NEW YORK
OFFICE OF THE COMPTROLLER
SCOTT M. STRINGER

December 29, 2021

To the Residents of the City of New York:

My office has audited the Office of the New York County Public Administrator (NYCPA) to determine whether the NYCPA complied with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) financial reporting requirements set forth in United States Code, Title 26 – Internal Revenue Code. We audit entities such as the NYCPA to increase accountability and to ensure that they comply with applicable laws and guidelines.

The audit found that the NYCPA did not comply with the IRS requirements for collecting and validating vendors' tax information.

The audit makes three recommendations to the NYCPA, including that the NYCPA should collect W-8s or W-9s from all vendors, use the IRS TIN matching service to validate vendor name and TIN combinations, and appropriately report vendor payments to the IRS based on federal tax classification as reported by vendors on W-8s and W-9s.

The results of the audit have been discussed with NYCPA officials, and their comments have been considered in preparing this report. The NYCPA's complete written response is attached to this report.

If you have any questions concerning this report, please e-mail my Audit Bureau at audit@comptroller.nyc.gov.

Sincerely,

THE CITY OF NEW YORK OFFICE OF THE COMPTROLLER FINANCIAL AUDIT

Audit Report on the New York County Public Administrator's Compliance with Financial Reporting Requirements

FK21-065A

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

New York City (the City) has one Public Administrator (PA) in each of the counties that make up the City. Each of these PAs is appointed by the judge or judges of the Surrogate's Court of their respective counties. The PAs are responsible for administering the estates of individuals who die intestate (i.e., without a will) or when no other appropriate individual is willing or qualified to administer the estate. The Office of the New York County Public Administrator (NYCPA) administers such estates in New York County. As the estate administrator, the NYCPA has a fiduciary duty to the estates that requires the NYCPA to, among other things, conduct thorough investigations to discover all assets and safeguard them; pay decedents' bills and taxes; account for and maintain documentation to support estate activities and transactions; and distribute estate proceeds to decedents' heirs and distributees. Article 11 of the New York State Surrogate's Court Procedure Act (SCPA) and the Guidelines for the Operations of the Public Administrators of New York State (PA Guidelines) govern the NYCPA's estate-administration process.

The NYCPA is managed by a Public Administrator and a Deputy Public Administrator who were appointed in September 2015 and May 2020, respectively. The Public Administrator's and Deputy Public Administrator's salaries are included annually in the expense budget of the City pursuant to SCPA §1105(3). The Public Administrator is also authorized to appoint other employees "as may be allowed annually in the budget of the [C]ity" pursuant to SCPA §1108(1). In addition, the PA Guidelines authorize the Public Administrator to maintain a "suspense account" which contains, among other things, fees allowed by the court for PA expenses, and to "use the suspense account to pay office expenses not funded by the PA's budget."

The NYCPA reported that it made suspense account disbursements totaling $1,258,363 during Calendar Year 2019.

Audit Findings and Conclusion

The NYCPA did not comply with Internal Revenue Service (IRS) requirements for collecting and validating vendors' tax information.

Audit Recommendations

Based on our findings, we made the following three recommendations to the NYCPA:

- The NYCPA should collect W-8s or W-9s from all vendors.
- The NYCPA should use the IRS TIN matching service to validate vendor name and TIN combinations.
- The NYCPA should appropriately report vendor income to the IRS based on federal tax classification as reported by vendors on W-8s and W-9s.

Agency Response

In its response, the NYCPA disagreed with the report's findings regarding its compliance with IRS requirements for collecting vendors' tax information and reporting vendors' income. In response to the recommendations, the NYCPA maintained that it "collects Form W-8s and W-9s for the purpose of collecting information needed to report on a Form 1099" and that it "complied with IRS rules with respect to the reporting of vendor income." However, as detailed in the report, the NYCPA did not comply with applicable IRS requirements for collecting, and IRS guidance for validating, vendors' tax information.

With regard to the recommendation that it use the IRS TIN matching service to validate vendor name and TIN combinations, the NYCPA stated, "Although the TIN matching system is free, it is very difficult to access. Additionally, the online matching system requires personal information from the user to create an account. The NYCPA will continue to make all efforts to reach a party to verify the TIN combinations."

AUDIT REPORT

Background

The City has one PA in each of the counties that make up the City, who are appointed by the judge or judges of the Surrogate's Court of their respective counties. These PAs are responsible for administering the estates of individuals who die intestate (i.e., without a will) or when no other appropriate individual is willing or qualified to administer the estate. The NYCPA administers such estates in New York County. As the estate administrator, the NYCPA has a fiduciary duty to the estate that requires the NYCPA to, among other things, conduct thorough investigations to discover all assets and safeguard them; pay decedents' bills and taxes; account for and maintain documentation to support estate activities and transactions; and distribute estate proceeds to decedents' heirs and distributees. Article 11 of the SCPA and the PA Guidelines govern the NYCPA's estate-administration process.

The NYCPA is managed by a Public Administrator and a Deputy Public Administrator who were appointed in September 2015 and May 2020, respectively. The Public Administrator's and Deputy Public Administrator's salaries are included annually in the expense budget of the City pursuant to SCPA §1105(3). The Public Administrator is also authorized to appoint other employees "as may be allowed annually in the budget of the [C]ity" pursuant to SCPA §1108(1).

In addition, the PA Guidelines authorize the Public Administrator to maintain a "suspense account" which contains, among other things, fees allowed by the court for PA expenses, and to "use the suspense account to pay office expenses not funded by the PA's budget."¹ During Calendar Year 2019, the NYCPA reported that it made suspense account disbursements totaling $1,258,363, which included, among other things, payments to vendors for providing goods and services to the PA's office and payments made to employees.

Objectives

The objective of this audit was to determine whether the NYCPA complied with the financial reporting requirements of the United States Code, Title 26 - Internal Revenue Code.

Scope and Methodology Statement

We conducted this performance audit in accordance with generally accepted government auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain sufficient, appropriate evidence to provide a reasonable basis for our findings and conclusions based on our audit objectives. We believe that the evidence obtained provides a reasonable basis for our findings and conclusions based on our audit objectives. This audit was conducted in accordance with the audit responsibilities of the City Comptroller as set forth in Chapter 5, §93, of the New York City Charter.

The scope of this audit covered Calendar Year 2019. Please refer to the Detailed Scope and Methodology at the end of this report for the specific procedures and tests that were conducted.

¹ SCPA 1106(3) authorizes Public Administrators to retain "a reasonable amount for the expenses of this office, to be fixed by the court," which is currently set at a one percent commission of the gross value of each estate.

Discussion of Audit Results

The matters covered in this report were discussed with NYCPA officials during and at the conclusion of this audit. A preliminary draft report was sent to the NYCPA and was discussed at an exit conference on November 30, 2021. On December 10, 2021, we submitted a draft report to the NYCPA with a request for written comments. We received a written response from the NYCPA on December 23, 2021.

In its response, the NYCPA disagreed with the report's findings regarding its compliance with IRS requirements for collecting vendors' tax information and reporting vendors' income. In response to the two corresponding recommendations, the NYCPA maintained that it "collects Form W-8s and W-9s for the purpose of collecting information needed to report on a Form 1099" and "complied with IRS rules with respect to the reporting of vendor income." However, as detailed in the report, the NYCPA did not comply with IRS requirements for collecting, and IRS guidance for validating, vendors' tax information.

With regard to the recommendation that it use the IRS TIN matching service to validate vendor name and TIN combinations, the NYCPA stated, "Although the TIN matching system is free, it is very difficult to access. Additionally, the online matching system requires personal information from the user to create an account. The NYCPA will continue to make all efforts to reach a party to verify the TIN combinations." The full text of the NYCPA's response is included as an addendum to this report.

FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

The NYCPA did not comply with IRS requirements for collecting and validating vendors' tax information. This finding is discussed below.

The NYCPA Did Not Collect and Validate Vendors' Tax Information

The NYCPA uses suspense account funds to pay office expenses, which include, among other things, payments to vendors for providing goods and services to the PA's office. In accordance with its management and oversight responsibilities, the NYCPA must fully comply with all IRS requirements for the submission of Form 1099-MISC (1099) for each person, other than employees, it pays during the year.² 26 CFR §1.6041-1(a)(1)(i) states that Every person engaged in a trade or business shall make an information return for each calendar year with respect to payments it makes during the calendar year in the course of its trade or business to another person of fixed or determinable income. . . . For purposes of the regulations under this section, the person described in this paragraph (a)(1)(i) is a payor.

Further, 26 CFR §1.6041-1(a)(1)(i)(A) states that income includes “[s]alaries, wages, commissions, fees, and other forms of compensation for services rendered aggregating $600 or more.”

As a payor required to file 1099s, the NYCPA should use Form W-8 (W-8), Form W-9 (W-9), or an acceptable substitute to collect each vendor's name, tax identification number (“TIN”), and federal tax classification and to obtain certifications from vendors that TINs are correct and that they are not subject to backup withholding.³ The IRS Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 state that requestors should Use Form W-9 to request the taxpayer identification number (TIN) of a U.S. person (including a resident alien) and to request certain certifications and claims for exemption. . . . For federal tax purposes, a U.S. person includes but is not limited to:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien;
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States.

Additionally, the NYCPA should validate vendor information prior to submitting 1099s. The IRS offers a free TIN matching service that allows payors, such as Public Administrators, to validate name and TIN combinations.

² 26 CFR §1.6041-1(a)(2) states that the “return required by subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall be made on Forms 1096 [Annual Summary and Transmittal of U.S. Information Returns] and 1099 [Miscellaneous Income] except that . . . the return with respect to certain payments of compensation to an employee by his employer shall be made on Forms W-3 and W-2 under the provisions of § 1.6041-2 (relating to return of information as to payments to employees).”

During Calendar Year 2019, the NYCPA, using suspense account funds, paid 24 vendors in amounts that exceeded the $600 income-reporting threshold.⁴ Those vendors received combined payments totaling $259,947. However, the NYCPA did not collect vendor information for those 24 vendors, specifically through the use of W-8 or W-9 forms or an acceptable substitute, as required, and did not validate vendor information in accordance with IRS guidance. By failing to collect and validate required information from vendors whom it paid income exceeding the $600 reporting threshold, the NYCPA failed to comply with its obligation to collect required information from its vendors.

We note that the NYCPA did not issue 1099s to any of the above-mentioned 24 vendors. Since the NYCPA did not collect information from vendors, including their federal tax classification, we could not determine whether and to what extent the NYCPA should have issued 1099s to those 24 vendors and ultimately, whether the NYCPA complied with its obligation to report income by issuing 1099s.

Recommendations

The NYCPA should:

1. Collect W-8s or W-9s from all vendors.

NYCPA Response: “The NYCPA collects Form W-8s and W-9s for the purpose of collecting information needed to report on a Form 1099. The instructions for Form 1099-MISC state clearly that ‘[s]ome payments do not have to be reported on Form 1099-MISC, although they may be taxable to the recipient. Payments for which a Form 1099-MISC is not required include  [g]enerally, payments to a corporation (including a limited liability company (LLC) that is treated as a C or S corporation).’ Elsewhere in the instructions it notes that this exemption from reporting does not apply to payments made to corporations for legal services or medical or health care services. Out of the 24 vendors referenced in the report 15 are not corporations engaged in legal or medical services and were exempt from the reporting requirement. Additionally, there are 8 vendors that were enlisted to perform services for estates and none of the payments are costs of the NYCPA for its office and therefore is not a 1099 issue.”

Auditor Comment: The NYCPA is conflating two separate and distinct IRS requirements: (1) to collect W-8s or W-9s from all vendors; and (2) to issue 1099s for reportable payments to vendors that require them under applicable IRS rules.

As a payor required to file 1099s, the NYCPA, as a matter of standard procedure, should use W-8s, W-9s, or an acceptable substitute to collect each vendor’s name, TIN, and federal tax classification and to obtain certifications from vendors that their TINs are correct and that they are not subject to backup withholding. The IRS Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 state that requesters should “[u]se Form W-9 to request the taxpayer identification number (TIN) of a U.S. person” and that “[f]or federal tax purposes, a U.S. person includes but is not limited to . . . A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States.” Further, the Form 1099 Misc Reminders for State and Local Governments states that requestors should “[o]btain vendor information up front; don’t wait until year-end.”

However, as detailed in the report, the NYCPA did not consistently obtain vendor information up front during the audit scope period. Specifically, the NYCPA did not collect the requisite information for 24 vendors through the use of W-8 or W-9 forms or an acceptable substitute, as required, and did not validate vendor information in accordance with IRS guidance. In the absence of W-8s or W-9s detailing vendors’ federal tax classification—particularly with respect to limited liability companies, entities that may elect to be treated as either a corporation or partnership for federal tax classification purposes—we could not determine whether the NYCPA complied with the separate and distinct IRS requirement to report income for vendors by issuing 1099s.

In response to the draft audit, the NYCPA recently obtained the required W-9s for 15 of the 24 above-referenced vendors that it paid in amounts exceeding the $600 reporting threshold in Calendar Year 2019. Additionally, the NYCPA obtained an email from another vendor stating that it was an “S-corp.” However, the NYCPA should have collected W-9s from those 16 vendors timely—in Calendar Year 2019. Based on the newly obtained vendor information, 15 of those 16 vendors were corporations and were not subject to 1099 reporting. The other vendor was an individual/sole proprietor or single-member LLC and was subject to 1099 reporting. However, the NYCPA did not issue a 1099 to that vendor for $1,930 it paid the vendor for services provided to the NYCPA in Calendar Year 2019.

Additionally, the NYCPA did not obtain W-9s for the remaining eight vendors. The NYCPA maintained that those eight vendors provided services on behalf of estates and therefore, the NYCPA was not the payor and not required to report vendor income. However, while the eight vendors may have provided services on behalf of estates, the NYCPA engaged those vendors, exercised management and oversight responsibilities in relation to those engagements, and paid them using NYCPA suspense account funds and therefore, the IRS may deem the NYCPA to be the payor.

Therefore, we reiterate that the NYCPA should collect W-8s or W-9s from all vendors.

2. Use the IRS TIN matching service to validate vendor name and TIN combinations.

NYCPA Response: “Although the TIN matching system is free, it is very difficult to access. Additionally, the online matching system requires personal information from the user to create an account. The NYCPA will continue to make all efforts to reach a party to verify the TIN combinations.”

Auditor Comment: IRS guidance states that payors who include incorrect information on returns may be subject to penalties. Therefore, the NYCPA should, if necessary, seek help from the IRS on how to best access and use the TIN matching service as a prudent measure to limit the risk of misreporting required information.

3. Appropriately report vendor income to the IRS based on federal tax classification as reported by vendors on W-8s and W-9s.

NYCPA Response: “As noted in the response to Recommendation 1, the 15 vendors listed have been verified to be corporations and the NYCPA was not required to issue the vendor a Form 1099. The NYCPA complied with IRS rules with respect to the reporting of vendor income.”

Auditor Comment: Although the NYCPA references 15 vendors that did not require Form 1099s, at least one other vendor in the above-referenced group of 24 did require a Form 1099 but did not receive one from the NYCPA during the relevant reporting period. We reiterate that the NYCPA should appropriately report vendor income to the IRS based on federal tax classification as reported by vendors on W-8s and W-9s it obtains timely in relation to its payments to those vendors.

DETAILED SCOPE AND METHODOLOGY

We conducted this performance audit in accordance with generally accepted government auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain sufficient, appropriate evidence to provide a reasonable basis for our findings and conclusions based on our audit objectives. We believe that the evidence obtained provides a reasonable basis for our findings and conclusions based on our audit objectives. This audit was conducted in accordance with the audit responsibilities of the City Comptroller as set forth in Chapter 5, §93, of the New York City Charter.

The scope of this audit covered Calendar Year 2019.

To obtain an understanding of the policies, procedures, and regulations governing the NYCPA, we reviewed: Article 11 of the SCPA, Title 26 of the Internal Revenue Code, and the PA Guidelines.

We reviewed prior New York City Comptroller's audit reports on the financial and operating practices of the NYCPA which included audit number FP00-190A issued on June 25, 2003, audit number MD07-062A issued on June 27, 2007, and audit number FN12-076A issued on June 29, 2012.

To gain an understanding of the NYCPA's critical financial and operating practices and assess the NYCPA's internal controls, we interviewed NYCPA officials regarding: (1) the recording, documenting, and reporting of suspense account expenses; (2) the use of W-8s, W-9s, or other means to collect each vendor's name, TIN, and federal tax classification and to obtain certifications from vendors that TINs are correct; (3) validating vendor information; and (4) preparing and issuing 1099s for work performed on behalf of the NYCPA. We documented our understanding in memoranda and emails. To gain an understanding of the NYCPA's reporting system, Computrust, we reviewed the Computrust manual, and we conducted a walkthrough of the system with NYCPA officials. We documented our discussion in memoranda.

To identify all disbursements made during Calendar Year 2019, we requested and received the suspense account disbursement journal from Computrust. To test the reliability of the disbursement journal, we requested and received the December bank statements and reconciliations for the suspense account. The bank reconciliations contain a disbursement journal, bank statements, receipt journal, interest schedule, an outstanding check register, and check images.

To determine the accuracy of the suspense account disbursement journal, we randomly selected 50 transactions from the disbursement journal and compared payee names, payment amounts, and payment dates reported in the disbursement journal to bank statements and canceled checks. To ensure the disbursement journal was complete, we selected all 39 canceled checks from the December 2019 suspense account bank statement and determined whether those transactions were recorded in NYCPA disbursement journal.

We aggregated payments made to vendors using suspense account funds during Calendar Year 2019 and identified vendors who were paid more than $600. We excluded payments made to government entities and payments for office supplies and rent because the IRS does not require payors to issue 1099s for those types payments. The NYCPA paid 26 vendors more than $600 using suspense account funds.

As previously stated, the NYCPA did not use W-8s, W-9s, or an acceptable substitute to collect each suspense account vendor's name, TIN, and federal tax classification. Since the NYCPA did not collect information from vendors including their federal tax classification, we could not identify the total population of vendors who should have been issued 1099s and determine whether the NYCPA issued 1099s to vendors as required.

We requested that the NYCPA provide us with W-9s for all vendors who received payments during Calendar Year 2019, and all 1099s and W-2s issued for Calendar Year 2019.

To identify all suspense account employees for Calendar Year 2019, we requested that the NYCPA provide us with a list of all suspense account employees. The NYCPA provided us with a list of eight suspense account employees. We also reviewed the CompuTrust suspense account disbursement journal to determine whether the NYCPA paid additional employees with suspense account funds. To determine whether the NYCPA appropriately reported wages and other compensation to the IRS, we compared payment amounts in the suspense account disbursement journal for each suspense account employee to W-2s issued in Calendar Year 2019.

Please see the following responses to the three recommendations from the audit report on the New York County Public Administrator's Compliance for Calendar Year 2019:

Recommendation 1: The NYCPA should collect W-8s or W-9s from all vendors.

Response: The NYCPA collects Form W-8s and W-9s for the purpose of collecting information needed to report on a Form 1099. The instructions for Form 1099-MISC state clearly that “[s]ome payments do not have to be reported on Form 1099-MISC, although they may be taxable to the recipient. Payments for which a Form 1099-MISC is not required include * * * [g]enerally, payments to a corporation (including a limited liability company (LLC) that is treated as a C or S corporation).” Elsewhere in the instructions it notes that this exemption from reporting does not apply to payments made to corporations for legal services or medical or health care services. Out of the 24 vendors referenced in the report 15 are not corporations engaged in legal or medical services and were exempt from the reporting requirement. Additionally, there are 8 vendors that were enlisted to perform services for estates and none of the payments are costs of the NYCPA for its office and therefore is not a 1099 issue.

Recommendation 2: The NYCPA should use the IRS TIN matching service to validate vendor name and TIN combinations Response: Although the TIN matching system is free, it is very difficult to access. Additionally, the online matching system requires personal information from the user to create an account. The NYCPA will continue to make all efforts to reach a party to verify the TIN combinations.

Recommendation 3: Appropriately report vendor income to the IRS based on federal tax classification as reported by vendors on W-8s and W-9s Response: As noted in the response to Recommendation 1, the 15 vendors listed have been verified to be corporations and the NYCPA was not required to issue the vendor a Form 1099. The NYCPA complied with IRS rules with respect to the reporting of vendor income.

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Forms 1099-MISC and 1099-NEC and their instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to IRS.gov/Form1099MISC or IRS.gov/Form1099NEC.

What's New

Form 1099-NEC. The PATH Act, P.L. 114-113, Div. Q, sec. 201, accelerated the due date for filing Form 1099 that includes nonemployee compensation (NEC) from February 28 to January 31 and eliminated the automatic 30-day extension for forms that include NEC. Beginning with tax year 2020, use Form 1099-NEC to report nonemployee compensation.

See part C in the 2020 General Instructions for Certain Information Returns, and Form 8809, for extensions of time to file. See part M in the 2020 General Instructions for Certain Information Returns for extensions of time to furnish recipient statements.

Redesigned Form 1099-MISC. Due to the creation of Form 1099-NEC, we have revised Form 1099-MISC and rearranged box numbers for reporting certain income.

Changes in the reporting of income and the form's box numbers are listed below.

- Payer made direct sales of $5,000 or more (checkbox) in box 7.
- Crop insurance proceeds are reported in box 9.
- Gross proceeds to an attorney are reported in box 10.
- Section 409A deferrals are reported in box 12.
- Nonqualified deferred compensation income is reported in box 14.
- Boxes 15, 16, and 17 report state taxes withheld, state identification number, and amount of income earned in the state, respectively.

Reminders

General instructions. In addition to these specific instructions, you should also use the 2020 General Instructions for Certain Information Returns. Those general instructions include information about the following topics.

- Who must file.
- When and where to file.
- Electronic reporting.
- Corrected and void returns.
- Statements to recipients.
- Taxpayer identification numbers (TINs).
- Backup withholding.

- Penalties.
- The definitions of terms applicable for chapter 4 purposes that are referenced in these instructions.
- Other general topics.

You can get the general instructions from General Instructions for Certain Information Returns at IRS.gov/1099GeneralInstructions or go to IRS.gov/Form1099MISC or IRS.gov/Form1099NEC.

Online fillable copies. To ease statement furnishing requirements, Copies B, C, 1, and 2 have been made fillable online in a PDF format available at IRS.gov/Form1099MISC and IRS.gov/Form1099NEC. You can complete these copies online for furnishing statements to recipients and for retaining in your own files.

Filing dates. Section 6071(c) requires you to file Form 1099-NEC on or before February 1, 2021, using either paper or electronic filing procedures. File Form 1099-MISC by March 1, 2021, if you file on paper, or March 31, 2021, if you file electronically.

Specific Instructions for Form 1099-MISC

File Form 1099-MISC, Miscellaneous Income, for each person in the course of your business to whom you have paid the following during the year:

- At least $10 in royalties (see the instructions for box 2) or broker payments in lieu of dividends or tax-exempt interest (see the instructions for box 8).
- At least $600 in:
 1. Rents (box 1);
 2. Prizes and awards (box 3);
 3. Other income payments (box 3);
 4. Generally, the cash paid from a notional principal contract to an individual, partnership, or estate (box 3);
 5. Any fishing boat proceeds (box 5);
 6. Medical and health care payments (box 6);
 7. Crop insurance proceeds (box 9);
 8. Payments to an attorney (box 10) (see Payments to attorneys, later);
 9. Section 409A deferrals (box 12); or
 10. Nonqualified deferred compensation (box 14).

You must also file Form 1099-MISC for each person from whom you have withheld any federal income tax (report in box 4) under the backup withholding rules regardless of the amount of the payment.

Be sure to report each payment in the proper box because the IRS uses this information to determine whether the recipient has properly reported the payment.

Trade or business reporting only. Report on Form 1099-MISC only when payments are made in the course of your trade or business. Personal payments are not reportable. You are engaged in a trade or business if you operate for gain or profit. However, nonprofit organizations are considered to be engaged in a trade or business and are subject to these reporting requirements. Other organizations subject to these reporting requirements include trusts of qualified pension or profit-sharing plans of employers, certain organizations exempt from tax under section 501(c) or (d), farmers' cooperatives that are exempt from tax under section 521, and widely held fixed investment trusts. Payments by federal, state, or local government agencies are also reportable.

Exceptions. Some payments do not have to be reported on Form 1099-MISC, although they may be taxable to the recipient. Payments for which a Form 1099-MISC is not required include all of the following.

- Generally, payments to a corporation (including a limited liability company (LLC) that is treated as a C or S corporation). However, see Reportable payments to corporations, later.
- Payments for merchandise, telegrams, telephone, freight, storage, and similar items.
- Payments of rent to real estate agents or property managers. However, the real estate agent or property manager must use Form 1099-MISC to report the rent paid over to the property owner. See Regulations sections 1.6041-3(d), 1.6041-1(e)(5), Example 5, and the instructions for box 1.
- Wages paid to employees (report on Form W-2, Wage and Tax Statement).
- Military differential wage payments made to employees while they are on active duty in the Armed Forces or other uniformed services (report on Form W-2).
- Business travel allowances paid to employees (may be reportable on Form W-2).
- Cost of current life insurance protection (report on Form W-2 or Form 1099-R, Distributions From Pensions, Annuities, Retirement or Profit-Sharing Plans, IRAs, Insurance Contracts, etc.).
- Payments to a tax-exempt organization including tax-exempt trusts (IRAs, HSAs, Archer MSAs, Coverdell ESAs, and ABLE (529A) accounts), the United States, a state, the District of Columbia, a U.S. possession, or a foreign government.
- Payments made to or for homeowners from the HFA Hardest Hit Fund or similar state program (report on Form 1098-MA).
- Compensation for injuries or sickness by the Department of Justice as a public safety officer disability or survivor's benefit, or under a state program that provides benefits for surviving dependents of a public safety officer who has died as the direct and proximate result of a personal injury sustained in the line of duty.
- Compensation for wrongful incarceration for any criminal offense for which there was a conviction under federal or state law. See section 139F, Certain amounts received by wrongfully incarcerated individuals.

Form 1099-K. Payments made with a credit card or payment card and certain other types of payments, including third-party network transactions, must be reported on Form 1099-K by the payment settlement entity under section 6050W and are not subject to reporting on Form 1099-MISC. See the separate Instructions for Form 1099-K.

Fees paid to informers. A payment to an informer as an award, fee, or reward for information about criminal activity does not have to be reported if the payment is made by a federal, state, or local government agency, or by a nonprofit organization exempt from tax under section 501(c)(3) that makes the payment to further the charitable purpose of lessening the burdens of government. For more information, see Regulations section 1.6041-3(l).

Scholarships. Do not use Form 1099-MISC to report scholarship or fellowship grants. Scholarship or fellowship grants that are taxable to the recipient because they are paid for teaching, research, or other services as a condition for receiving the grant are considered wages and must be reported on Form W-2. Other taxable scholarship or fellowship payments (to a degree or nondegree candidate) do not have to be reported to the IRS on any form, unless section 6050S requires reporting of such amounts by an educational institution on Form 1098-T, Tuition Statement. See section 117(b)–(d) and Regulations section 1.6041-3(n) for more information.

Canceled debt. A canceled debt is not reportable on Form 1099-MISC. Canceled debts reportable under section 6050P must be reported on Form 1099-C. See the Instructions for Forms 1099-A and 1099-C.

Reportable payments to corporations. The following payments made to corporations generally must be reported on Form 1099-MISC.

- Medical and health care payments reported in box 6.
- Gross proceeds paid to an attorney reported in box 10.
- Substitute payments in lieu of dividends or tax-exempt interest reported in box 8.

Payments to attorneys. The term “attorney” includes a law firm or other provider of legal services. Attorneys' fees of $600 or more paid in the course of your trade or business are reportable in box 1 of Form 1099-NEC, under section 6041A(a)(1).

Gross proceeds paid to attorneys. Under section 6045(f), report in box 10 payments that:

- Are made to an attorney in the course of your trade or business in connection with legal services, but not for the attorney's services, for example, as in a settlement agreement;
- Total $600 or more; and
- Are not reportable by you in box 1 of Form 1099-NEC.

Generally, you are not required to report the claimant's attorney's fees. For example, an insurance company pays a claimant's attorney $100,000 to settle a claim. The insurance company reports the payment as gross proceeds of $100,000 in box 10. However, the insurance company does not have a reporting requirement for the claimant's attorney's fees subsequently paid from these funds.

These rules apply whether or not:

- The legal services are provided to the payer;
- The attorney is the exclusive payee (for example, the attorney's and claimant's names are on one check); or
- Other information returns are required for some or all of a payment under another section of the Code, such as section 6041.

For example, a person who, in the course of a trade or business, pays $600 of taxable damages to a claimant by paying that amount to a claimant's attorney is required to:

- Furnish Form 1099-MISC to the claimant, reporting damages pursuant to section 6041, generally in box 3; and
- Furnish Form 1099-MISC to the claimant's attorney, reporting gross proceeds paid pursuant to section 6045(f) in box 10.

For more examples and exceptions relating to payments to attorneys, see Regulations section 1.6045-5.

However, these rules do not apply to wages paid to attorneys that are reportable on Form W-2 or to profits distributed by a partnership to its partners that are reportable on:

- Schedule K-1 (Form 1065), Partner's Share of Income, Deductions, Credits, etc.

Payments to corporations for legal services. The exemption from reporting payments made to corporations does not apply to payments for legal services. Therefore, you must report attorneys' fees (in box 1 of Form 1099-NEC) or gross proceeds (in box 10 of Form 1099-MISC), as described earlier, to corporations that provide legal services.

Taxpayer identification numbers (TINs). To report payments to an attorney on Form 1099-MISC, you must obtain the attorney's TIN. You may use Form W-9, Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification, to obtain the attorney's TIN. An attorney is required to promptly supply its TIN whether it is a corporation or other entity, but the attorney is not required to certify its TIN. If the attorney fails to provide its TIN, the attorney may be subject to a penalty under section 6723 and its regulations, and you must backup withhold on the reportable payments.

Deceased employee's wages. When an employee dies during the year, you must report the accrued wages, vacation pay, and other compensation paid after the date of death. If you made the payment in the same year the employee died, you must withhold social security and Medicare taxes on the payment and report them only as social security and Medicare wages on the employee's Form W-2 to ensure that proper social security and Medicare credit is received. On the Form W-2, show the payment as social security wages (box 3) and Medicare wages and tips (box 5) and the social security and Medicare taxes withheld in boxes 4 and 6; do not show the payment in box 1 of Form W-2.

If you made the payment after the year of death, do not report it on Form W-2 and do not withhold social security and Medicare taxes.

Whether the payment is made in the year of death or after the year of death, you must also report the payment to the estate or beneficiary on Form 1099-MISC. Report the payment in box 3 (rather than as non-employee compensation). See the Example that follows. Enter the name and TIN of the payment recipient on Form 1099-MISC. For example, if the recipient is an individual beneficiary, enter the name and social security number of the individual; if the recipient is the estate, enter the name and employer identification number of the estate. The general backup withholding rules apply to this payment.

Death benefits from nonqualified deferred compensation plans or section 457 plans paid to the estate or beneficiary of a deceased employee are reportable on Form 1099-MISC. Do not report these death benefits on Form 1099-R. However, if the benefits are from a qualified plan, report them on Form 1099-R. See the Instructions for Forms 1099-R and 5498.

Example. Before Employee A's death on June 15, 2020, A was employed by Employer X and received $10,000 in wages on which federal income tax of $1,500 was withheld. When A died, X owed A $2,000 in wages and $1,000 in accrued vacation pay. The total of $3,000 (less the social security and Medicare taxes withheld) was paid to A's estate on July 20, 2020. Because X made the payment during the year of death, X must withhold social security and Medicare taxes on the $3,000 payment and must complete Form W-2 as follows.

- Box 1—10000.00 (does not include the $3,000 accrued wages and vacation pay).
- Box 2—1500.00.
- Box 3—13000.00 (includes the $3,000 accrued wages and vacation pay).
- Box 4—806.00 (social security tax withheld).
- Box 5—13000.00 (includes the $3,000 accrued wages and vacation pay).
- Box 6—188.50 (Medicare tax withheld).

Employer X must also complete Form 1099-MISC as follows.

- Boxes for recipient's name, address, and TIN—The estate's or beneficiary's name, address, and TIN.
- Box 3—3000.00 (Even though amounts were withheld for social security and Medicare taxes, the gross amount is reported here.)

If Employer X made the payment after the year of death, the $3,000 would not be subject to social security and Medicare taxes and would not be shown on Form W-2. However, the employer would still file Form 1099-MISC.

Employee business expense reimbursements. Do not use Form 1099-MISC to report employee business expense reimbursements. Report payments made to employees under a nonaccountable plan as wages on Form W-2. Generally, payments made to employees under an accountable plan are not reportable on Form W-2, except in certain cases when you pay a per diem or mileage allowance. For more information, see the Instructions for Forms W-2 and W-3, and Pub. 463. For information on reporting employee moving expense reimbursements on Form W-2, see the Instructions for Forms W-2 and W-3.

Payments made on behalf of another person. For payments reportable under section 6041, if you make a payment on behalf of another person, who is the source of the funds, you may be responsible for filing Form 1099-MISC. You are the payor for information reporting purposes if you perform management or oversight functions in connection with the payment, or have a significant economic interest in the payment (such as a lien). For example, a bank that provides financing to a real estate developer for a construction project maintains an account from which it makes payments for services in connection with the project. The bank performs management and oversight functions over the payments and is responsible for filing information returns for payments of $600 or more paid to contractors. For more information, see Regulations section 1.6041-1(e).

Indian gaming profits, payments to tribal members. If you make payments to members of Indian tribes from the net revenues of class II or class III gaming activities conducted or licensed by the tribes, you must withhold federal income tax on such payments. File Form 1099-MISC to report the payments and withholding to tribal members. Report the payments in box 3 and the federal income tax withheld in box 4. Pub. 15-A contains the necessary Tables for Withholding on Distributions of Indian Gaming Profits to Tribal Members.

State or local sales taxes. If state or local sales taxes are imposed on the service provider and you (as the buyer) pay them to the service provider, report them on Form 1099-MISC as part of the reportable payment. However, if sales taxes are imposed on you (as the buyer) and collected from you by the service provider, do not report the sales taxes on Form 1099-MISC.

Widely held fixed investment trusts (WHFITs). Trustees and middlemen of WHFITs must report items of gross income attributable to a trust income holder (TIH) on the appropriate Form 1099. A tax information statement that includes the information provided to the IRS on Forms 1099, as well as additional information identified in Regulations section 1.671-5(e), must be furnished to TIHs. For details, see the 2020 General Instructions for Certain Information Returns.

Statements to Recipients

If you are required to file Form 1099-MISC, you must furnish a statement to the recipient. For more information about the requirement to furnish a statement to each recipient, and truncation, see part M in the 2020 General Instructions for Certain Information Returns.

You can furnish each recipient with a single payee statement reporting all Form 1099-MISC payment types. You are required to furnish the payee statements by January 31 and file with the IRS by February 28, (March 31, if filing electronically).

Truncating recipient's TIN on payee statements.

Pursuant to Regulations section 301.6109-4, all filers of this form may truncate a recipient's TIN (social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN)) on payee statements. Truncation is not allowed on any documents the filer files with the IRS. A payer's TIN may not be truncated on any form. See part J in the 2020 General Instructions for Certain Information Returns.

Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) Filing Requirement Checkbox

Check the box if you are a U.S. payer that is reporting on Form(s) 1099 (including reporting payments on this Form 1099-MISC) as part of satisfying your requirement to report with respect to a U.S. account for chapter 4 purposes as described in Regulations section 1.1471-4(d)(2)(iii)(A). In addition, check the box if you are a Foreign Financial Institution (FFI) reporting payments to a U.S. account pursuant to an election described in Regulations section 1.1471-4(d)(5)(i)(A). Finally, check the box if you are an FFI making the election described in Regulations section 1.1471-4(d)(5)(i)(A) and are reporting a U.S. account for chapter 4 purposes to which you made no payments during the year that are reportable on any applicable Form 1099 (or are reporting a U.S. account to which you made payments during the year that do not reach the applicable reporting threshold for any applicable Form 1099).

2nd TIN Not.

You may enter an "X" in this box if you were notified by the IRS twice within 3 calendar years that the payee provided an incorrect TIN. If you mark this box, the IRS will not send you any further notices about this account.

However, if you received both IRS notices in the same year, or if you received them in different years but they both related to information returns filed for the same year, do not check the box at this time. For purposes of the two-notices-in-3-years rule, you are considered to have received one notice and you are not required to send a second "B" notice to the taxpayer on receipt of the second notice. See part N in the 2020 General Instructions for Certain Information Returns for more information.

For information on the TIN Matching System offered by the IRS, see the 2020 General Instructions for Certain Information Returns.

Corrections to Form 1099-MISC

If you need to correct a Form 1099-MISC that you have already sent to the IRS:

- For paper forms, see the 2020 General Instructions for Certain Information Returns, part H; or
- For electronic corrections, see Pub. 1220.

If you are filing a correction on a paper form, do not check the VOID box on the form. A checked VOID box alerts IRS scanning equipment to ignore the form and proceed to the next one. Your correction will not be entered into IRS records if you check the VOID box.

Recipient's TIN

Enter the recipient's TIN using hyphens in the proper format. SSNs, ITINs, and ATINs should be in the XXX-XX-XXXX format. EINs should be in the XX-XXXXXXX format. You should make every effort to ensure that you have the correct type of number reported in the correct format.

Account Number

The account number is required if you have multiple accounts for a recipient for whom you are filing more than one Form 1099-MISC. The account number is also required if you check the "FATCA filing requirement" box. See FATCA Filing Requirement Checkbox, earlier. Additionally, the IRS encourages you to designate an account number for all Forms 1099-MISC that you file. See part L in the 2020 General Instructions for Certain Information Returns.

Box 1. Rents

Enter amounts of $600 or more for all types of rents, such as any of the following.

- Real estate rentals paid for office space. However, you do not have to report these payments on Form 1099-MISC if you paid them to a real estate agent or property manager. But the real estate agent or property manager must use Form 1099-MISC to report the rent paid over to the property owner. See Regulations sections 1.6041-3(d) and 1.6041-1(e)(5), Example 5.
- Machine rentals (for example, renting a bulldozer to level your parking lot). If the machine rental is part of a contract that includes both the use of the machine and the operator, prorate the rental between the rent of the machine (report that in box 1) and the operator's charge (report that on Form 1099-NEC in box 1).
- Pasture rentals (for example, farmers paying for the use of grazing land).

Public housing agencies must report in box 1 rental assistance payments made to owners of housing projects. See Rev. Rul. 88-53, 1988-1 C.B. 384.

Coin-operated amusements. If an arrangement between an owner of coin-operated amusements and an owner of a business establishment where the amusements are placed is a lease of the amusements or the amusement space, the owner of the amusements or the owner of the space, whoever makes the payments, must report the lease payments in box 1 of Form 1099-MISC if the payments total at least $600. However, if the arrangement is a joint venture, the joint venture must file a Form 1065, U.S. Return of Partnership Income, and provide each partner with the information necessary to report the partner's share of the taxable income. Coin-operated amusements include video games, pinball machines, jukeboxes, pool tables, slot machines, and other machines and gaming devices operated by coins or tokens inserted into the machines by individual users. For more information, see Rev. Rul. 92-49, 1992-1 C.B. 433.

Box 2. Royalties

Enter gross royalty payments (or similar amounts) of $10 or more. Report royalties from oil, gas, or other mineral properties before reduction for severance and other taxes that may have been withheld and paid. Do not include surface royalties. They should be reported in box 1. Do not report oil or gas payments for a working interest in box 2; report payments for working interests in box 1 of Form 1099-NEC. Do not report timber royalties made under a pay-as-cut contract; report these timber royalties on Form 1099-S, Proceeds From Real Estate Transactions.

Use box 2 to report royalty payments from intangible property such as patents, copyrights, trade names, and trademarks. Report the gross royalties (before reduction for fees, commissions, or expenses) paid by a publisher directly to an author or literary agent, unless the agent is a corporation. The literary agent (whether or not a corporation) that receives the royalty payment on behalf of the author must report the gross amount of royalty payments to the author on Form 1099-MISC whether or not the publisher reported the payment to the agent on its Form 1099-MISC.

Box 3. Other Income

Enter other income of $600 or more required to be reported on Form 1099-MISC that is not reportable in one of the other boxes on the form.

Also enter in box 3 prizes and awards that are not for services performed. Include the fair market value (FMV) of merchandise won on game shows. Also include amounts paid to a winner of a sweepstakes not involving a wager. If a wager is made, report the winnings on Form W-2G.

 If, not later than 60 days after the winner becomes entitled to the prize, the winner can choose the option of a lump sum or an annuity payable over at least 10 years, the payment of winnings is considered made when actually paid. If the winner chooses an annuity, file Form 1099-MISC each year to report the annuity paid during that year.

Do not include prizes and awards paid to your employees. Report these on Form W-2. Do not include in box 3 prizes and awards for services performed by nonemployees, such as an award for the top commission salesperson. Report them in box 1 of Form 1099-NEC.

Prizes and awards received in recognition of past accomplishments in religious, charitable, scientific, artistic, educational, literary, or civic fields are not reportable if:

- The winners are chosen without action on their part,
- The winners are not expected to perform future services, and
- The payer transfers the prize or award to a charitable organization or governmental unit under a designation made by the recipient. See Rev. Proc. 87-54, 1987-2 C.B. 669.

Other items required to be reported in box 3 include the following.

1. Payments as explained earlier under Deceased employee's wages.
2. Payments as explained earlier under Indian gaming profits, payments to tribal members.
3. A payment or series of payments made to individuals for participating in a medical research study or studies.
4. Termination payments to former self-employed insurance salespeople. These payments are not subject to self-employment tax and are reportable in box 3 (rather than box 1 of Form 1099-NEC) if all the following apply.
 - a. The payments are received from an insurance company because of services performed as an insurance salesperson for the company.
 - b. The payments are received after termination of the salesperson's agreement to perform services for the company.
 - c. The salesperson did not perform any services for the company after termination and before the end of the year.
 - d. The salesperson enters into a covenant not to compete against the company for at least 1 year after the date of termination.
 - e. The amount of the payments depends primarily on policies sold by the salesperson or credited to the salesperson's account during the last year of the service agreement or to the extent those policies remain in force for some period after termination, or both.
 - f. The amount of the payments does not depend at all on length of service or overall earnings from the company (regardless of whether eligibility for payment depends on length of service).

If the termination payments do not meet all these requirements, report them in box 1 of Form 1099-NEC.

5. Generally, all punitive damages, any damages for nonphysical injuries or sickness, and any other taxable damages. Report punitive damages even if they relate to physical injury or physical sickness. Generally, report all compensatory damages for nonphysical injuries or sickness, such as employment discrimination or defamation. However, do not report damages (other than punitive damages):

- a. Received on account of personal physical injuries or physical sickness;
- b. That do not exceed the amount paid for medical care for emotional distress;
- c. Received on account of nonphysical injuries (for example, emotional distress) under a written binding agreement, court decree, or mediation award in effect on or issued by September 13, 1995; or

d. That are for a replacement of capital, such as damages paid to a buyer by a contractor who failed to complete construction of a building.

Damages received on account of emotional distress, including physical symptoms such as insomnia, headaches, and stomach disorders, are not considered received for a physical injury or physical sickness and are reportable unless described in item 5b or 5c above. However, damages received on account of emotional distress due to physical injuries or physical sickness are not reportable.

Also report liquidated damages received under the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967.

Taxable back pay damages may be wages and reportable on Form W-2. See Pub. 957.

Foreign agricultural workers. Report in box 3 compensation of $600 or more paid in a calendar year to an H-2A visa agricultural worker who did not give you a valid TIN. You must also withhold federal income tax under the backup withholding rules. For more information, go to IRS.gov and enter “foreign agricultural workers” in the search box.

Account reported under FATCA. If you are an FFI reporting pursuant to an election described in Regulations section 1.1471-4(d)(5)(i)(A) a U.S. account required to be reported under chapter 4 to which during the year you made no payments reportable on an applicable Form 1099, enter zero in box 3. In addition, if you are an FFI described in the preceding sentence and, during the year, you made payments to the account required to be reported under chapter 4, but those payments are not reportable on an applicable Form 1099 (for example, because the payment is under the applicable reporting threshold), you must report the account on this Form 1099-MISC and enter zero in box 3.

Box 4. Federal Income Tax Withheld

Enter backup withholding. For example, persons who have not furnished their TINs to you are subject to withholding on payments required to be reported in boxes 1, 2 (net of severance taxes), 3, 5 (to the extent paid in cash), 6, 8, 9, and 10. For more information on backup withholding, including the rate, see part N in the 2020 General Instructions for Certain Information Returns.

Also enter any income tax withheld from payments to members of Indian tribes from the net revenues of class II or class III gaming activities conducted or licensed by the tribes.

Box 5. Fishing Boat Proceeds

Enter the individual's share of all proceeds from the sale of a catch or the FMV of a distribution in kind to each crew member of fishing boats with normally fewer than 10 crew members. A fishing boat has normally fewer than 10 crew members if the average size of the operating crew was fewer than 10 on trips during the preceding 4 calendar quarters.

In addition, report cash payments of up to $100 per trip that are contingent on a minimum catch and are paid solely for additional duties (such as mate, engineer, or cook) for which additional cash payments are traditional in the industry. However, do not report on Form 1099-MISC any wages reportable on Form W-2.

Box 6. Medical and Health Care Payments

Enter payments of $600 or more made in the course of your trade or business to each physician or other supplier or provider of medical or health care services. Include payments made by medical and health care insurers under health, accident, and sickness insurance programs. If payment is made to a corporation, list the corporation as the recipient rather than the individual providing the services. Payments to persons providing health care services often include charges for injections, drugs, dentures, and similar items. In these cases, the entire payment is subject to information reporting. You are not required to report payments to pharmacies for prescription drugs.

The exemption from issuing Form 1099-MISC to a corporation does not apply to payments for medical or health care services provided by corporations, including professional corporations. However, you are not required to report payments made to a tax-exempt hospital or extended care facility or to a hospital or extended care facility owned and operated by the United States (or its possessions), a state, the District of Columbia, or any of their political subdivisions, agencies, or instrumentalities.

Generally, payments made under a flexible spending arrangement (as defined in section 106(c)(2)) or a health reimbursement arrangement which is treated as employer-provided coverage under an accident or health plan for purposes of section 106 are exempt from the reporting requirements of section 6041.

Box 7. Payer Made Direct Sales of $5,000 or More

Enter an “X” in the checkbox for sales by you of $5,000 or more of consumer products to a person on a buy-sell, deposit-commission, or other commission basis for resale (by the buyer or any other person) anywhere other than in a permanent retail establishment. Do not enter a dollar amount in this box.

The report you must give to the recipient for these direct sales need not be made on the official form. It may be in the form of a letter showing this information along with commissions, prizes, awards, etc.

Box 8. Substitute Payments in Lieu of Dividends or Interest

Enter aggregate payments of at least $10 of substitute payments received by a broker for a customer in lieu of dividends or tax-exempt interest as a result of a loan of a customer's securities. Substitute payment means a payment in lieu of (a) a dividend, or (b) tax-exempt interest to the extent that interest (including original issue discount) has accrued while the securities were on loan. For this purpose, a customer includes an individual, trust, estate, partnership, association, company, or corporation. See Notice 2003-67, which is on page 752 of Internal Revenue Bulletin 2003-40 at IRS.gov/irb/2003-40_IRB#NOT-2003-67. It does not include a tax-exempt organization, the United States, any state, the District of Columbia, a U.S. possession, or a foreign government. File Form 1099-MISC with the IRS and furnish a copy to the customer for whom you received the substitute payment.

Box 9. Crop Insurance Proceeds

Enter crop insurance proceeds of $600 or more paid to farmers by insurance companies unless the farmer has informed the insurance company that expenses have been capitalized under section 278, 263A, or 447.

Box 10. Gross Proceeds Paid to an Attorney

Enter gross proceeds of $600 or more paid to an attorney in connection with legal services (regardless of whether the services are performed for the payer). See Payments to attorneys, earlier.

Box 12. Section 409A Deferrals

You do not have to complete this box. For details, see Notice 2008-115, available at IRS.gov/irb/2008-52_IRB#NOT-2008-115.

If you complete this box, enter the total amount deferred during the year of at least $600 for the nonemployee under all nonqualified plans. The deferrals during the year include earnings on the current year and prior year deferrals. For additional information, see Regulations sections 1.409A-1 through 1.409A-6.

For deferrals and earnings under NQDC plans for employees, see the Instructions for Forms W-2 and W-3.

Box 13. Excess Golden Parachute Payments

Enter any excess golden parachute payments. An excess parachute payment is the amount over the base amount (the average annual compensation for services includible in the individual's gross income over the most recent 5 tax years). See Q/A-38 through Q/A-44 of Regulations section 1.280G-1 for how to compute the excess amount.

See Golden parachute payments, later, for more information.

Box 14. Nonqualified Deferred Compensation

Enter all amounts deferred (including earnings on amounts deferred) that are includible in income under section 409A because the nonqualified deferred compensation (NQDC) plan fails to satisfy the requirements of section 409A. Do not include amounts properly reported on a Form 1099-MISC, corrected Form 1099-MISC, Form W-2, or Form W-2c for a prior year. Also, do not include amounts that are considered to be subject to a substantial risk of forfeiture for purposes of section 409A. For additional information, see Regulations sections 1.409A-1 through 1.409A-6; Notice 2008-113, available at IRS.gov/irb/2008-51_IRB#NOT-2008-113; Notice 2008-115; Notice 2010-6, available at IRS.gov/irb/2010-03_IRB#NOT-2010-6; and Notice 2010-80, available at IRS.gov/irb/2010-51_IRB#NOT-2010-80.

The amount included in box 14 is also includible in box 1 of Form 1099-NEC.

Boxes 15–17. State Information

These boxes may be used by payers who participate in the Combined Federal/State Filing Program and/or who are required to file paper copies of this form with a state tax department. See Pub. 1220 for more information regarding the Combined Federal/State Filing Program. They are provided for your convenience only and need not be completed for the IRS. Use the state information boxes to report payments for up to two states. Keep the information for each state separated by the dash line. If you withheld state income tax on this payment, you may enter it in box 15. In box 16, enter the abbreviated name of the state and the payer's state identification number. The state number is the payer's identification number assigned by the individual state. In box 17, you may enter the amount of the state payment.

If a state tax department requires that you send them a paper copy of this form, use Copy 1 to provide information to the state tax department. Give Copy 2 to the recipient for use in filing the recipient's state income tax return.

Specific Instructions for Form 1099-NEC

File Form 1099-NEC, Nonemployee Compensation (NEC), for each person in the course of your business to whom you have paid the following during the year:

- At least $600 in:
 1. Services performed by someone who is not your employee (including parts and materials) (box 1);
 2. Cash payments for fish (or other aquatic life) you purchase from anyone engaged in the trade or business of catching fish (box 1); or
 3. Payments to an attorney (box 1). (See Payments to attorneys, later.)

You must also file Form 1099-NEC for each person from whom you have withheld any federal income tax (report in box 4) under the backup withholding rules regardless of the amount of the payment.

Be sure to report each payment in the proper box because the IRS uses this information to determine whether the recipient has properly reported the payment.

Trade or business reporting only. Report on Form 1099-NEC only when payments are made in the course of your trade or business. Personal payments are not reportable. You are engaged in a trade or business if you operate for gain or profit. However, nonprofit organizations are considered to be engaged in a trade or business and are subject to these reporting requirements. Other organizations subject to these reporting requirements include trusts of qualified pension or profit-sharing plans of employers, certain organizations exempt from tax under section 501(c) or 501(d), farmers' cooperatives that are exempt from tax under section 521, and widely held fixed investment trusts. Payments by federal, state, or local government agencies are also reportable.

Exceptions. Some payments do not have to be reported on Form 1099-NEC, although they may be taxable to the recipient. Payments for which a Form 1099-NEC is not required include all of the following.

- Generally, payments to a corporation (including a limited liability company (LLC) that is treated as a C or S corporation). However, see Reportable payments to corporations, later.
- Payments for merchandise, telegrams, telephone, freight, storage, and similar items.
- Payments of rent to real estate agents or property managers. However, the real estate agent or property manager must use Form 1099-MISC to report the rent paid over to the property owner. See Regulations sections

1.6041-3(d), 1.6041-1(e)(5), Example 5, and the instructions for box 1.

- Wages paid to employees (report on Form W-2, Wage and Tax Statement).
- Military differential wage payments made to employees while they are on active duty in the Armed Forces or other uniformed services (report on Form W-2).
- Business travel allowances paid to employees (may be reportable on Form W-2).
- Cost of current life insurance protection (report on Form W-2 or Form 1099-R, Distributions From Pensions, Annuities, Retirement or Profit-Sharing Plans, IRAs, Insurance Contracts, etc.).
- Payments to a tax-exempt organization including tax-exempt trusts (IRAs, HSAs, Archer MSAs, Coverdell ESAs, and ABLÉ (529A) accounts), the United States, a state, the District of Columbia, a U.S. possession, or a foreign government.
- Payments made to or for homeowners from the HFA Hardest Hit Fund or similar state program (report on Form 1098-MA).
- Compensation for injuries or sickness by the Department of Justice as a public safety officer disability or survivor's benefit, or under a state program that provides benefits for surviving dependents of a public safety officer who has died as the direct and proximate result of a personal injury sustained in the line of duty.
- Compensation for wrongful incarceration for any criminal offense for which there was a conviction under federal or state law. See section 139F, Certain amounts received by wrongfully incarcerated individuals.

Form 1099-K. Payments made with a credit card or payment card and certain other types of payments, including third-party network transactions, must be reported on Form 1099-K by the payment settlement entity under section 6050W and are not subject to reporting on Form 1099-NEC. See the separate Instructions for Form 1099-K.

Fees paid to informers. A payment to an informer as an award, fee, or reward for information about criminal activity does not have to be reported if the payment is made by a federal, state, or local government agency, or by a nonprofit organization exempt from tax under section 501(c)(3) that makes the payment to further the charitable purpose of lessening the burdens of government. For more information, see Regulations section 1.6041-3(l).

Scholarships. Do not use Form 1099-NEC to report scholarship or fellowship grants. Scholarship or fellowship grants that are taxable to the recipient because they are paid for teaching, research, or other services as a condition for receiving the grant are considered wages and must be reported on Form W-2. Other taxable scholarship or fellowship payments (to a degree or nondegree candidate) do not have to be reported to the IRS on any form, unless section 6050S requires reporting of such amounts by an educational institution on Form 1098-T, Tuition Statement. See section 117(b)–(d) and Regulations section 1.6041-3(n) for more information.

Difficulty-of-care payments. Do not use Form 1099-NEC to report difficulty-of-care payments that are excludable from the recipient's gross income. Difficulty-of-care payments to foster care providers are not reportable if paid for fewer than 11 children under age 19 and fewer than six individuals age 19 or older. See section 131(c). Amounts paid for more than 10 children or more than five other individuals are reportable on Form 1099-NEC.

Certain Medicaid waiver payments may be excludable from income as difficulty-of-care payments. For more information, see Notice 2014-7, available at IRS.gov/irb/2014-4_IRB#NOT-2014-7, and Medicaid waiver payments frequently asked questions (FAQs), available at IRS.gov/Individuals/Certain-Medicaid-Payments-May-Be-Excludable-From-Income.

Canceled debt. A canceled debt is not reportable on Form 1099-NEC. Canceled debts reportable under section 6050P must be reported on Form 1099-C. See the Instructions for Forms 1099-A and 1099-C.

Reportable payments to corporations. The following payments made to corporations generally must be reported on Form 1099-NEC.

- Fish purchases for cash reported in box 1.
- Attorneys' fees reported in box 1.
- Payments by a federal executive agency for services (vendors) reported in box 1.

Federal executive agencies may also have to file Form 8596, Information Return for Federal Contracts, and Form 8596-A, Quarterly Transmittal of Information Returns for Federal Contracts, if a contracted amount for personal services is more than $25,000. See Rev. Rul. 2003-66, which is on page 1115 of Internal Revenue Bulletin 2003-26 at IRS.gov/pub/irs-irbs/irb03-26.pdf for details.

Payments to attorneys. The term “attorney” includes a law firm or other provider of legal services. Attorneys' fees of $600 or more paid in the course of your trade or business are reportable in box 1 of Form 1099-NEC, under section 6041A(a)(1).

Gross proceeds paid to attorneys. Gross proceeds are not reportable by you in box 1 of Form 1099-NEC. See the Form 1099-MISC box 10 instructions, earlier.

Payments to corporations for legal services. The exemption from reporting payments made to corporations does not apply to payments for legal services. Therefore, you must report attorneys' fees (in box 1 of Form 1099-NEC) or gross proceeds (in box 10 of Form 1099-MISC) as described earlier to corporations that provide legal services.

Taxpayer identification numbers (TINs). To report payments to an attorney on Form 1099-NEC, you must obtain the attorney's TIN. You may use Form W-9, Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification, to obtain the attorney's TIN. An attorney is required to promptly supply its TIN whether it is a corporation or other entity, but the attorney is not required to certify its TIN. If the attorney fails to provide its TIN, the attorney may be subject to a penalty under section 6723 and its regulations, and you must backup withhold on the reportable payments.

Fish purchases. If you are in the trade or business of purchasing fish for resale, you must report total cash payments of $600 or more paid during the year to any person who is engaged in the trade or business of catching fish. Report these payments in box 1. You are required to keep records showing the date and amount of each cash payment made during the year, but you must report only the total amount paid for the year on Form 1099-NEC.

“Fish” means all fish and other forms of aquatic life. “Cash” means U.S. and foreign coin and currency and a cashier's check, bank draft, traveler's check, or money order. Cash does not include a check drawn on your personal or business account.

Employee business expense reimbursements. Do not use Form 1099-NEC to report employee business expense reimbursements. Report payments made to employees under a nonaccountable plan as wages on Form W-2. Generally, payments made to employees under an accountable plan are not reportable on Form W-2, except in certain cases when you pay a per diem or mileage allowance. For more information, see the Instructions for Forms W-2 and W-3, and Pub. 463. For information on reporting employee moving expense reimbursements on Form W-2, see the Instructions for Forms W-2 and W-3.

Independent contractor or employee. Generally, you must report payments to independent contractors on Form 1099-NEC in box 1. See the instructions for box 1.

TIP Section 530 of the Revenue Act of 1978 as extended by section 269(c) of P.L. 97-248 deals with the employment tax status of independent contractors and employees. To qualify for relief under section 530, employers must file Form 1099-NEC. Additional requirements for relief are discussed in Rev. Proc. 85-18, 1985-1 C.B. 518. Also see Pub. 15-A for special rules that may apply to technical service specialists and test proctors and room supervisors.

Transit passes and parking for independent contractors. Although you cannot provide qualified transportation fringes to independent contractors, the working condition and de minimis fringe rules for transit passes and parking apply to independent contractors. Tokens or farecards that enable an independent contractor to commute on a public transit system (not including privately operated van pools) are excludable from the independent contractor's gross income and are not reportable on Form 1099-NEC if their value in any month is $21 or less. However, if the value of a pass provided in a month is greater than $21, the full value is part of the gross income and must be reported on Form 1099-NEC. The value of parking may be excludable from an independent contractor's gross income, and, therefore, not reportable on Form 1099-NEC if certain requirements are met. See Regulations section 1.132-9(b), Q/A-24.

Directors' fees. You must report directors' fees and other remuneration, including payments made after retirement, on Form 1099-NEC in the year paid. Report them in box 1.

Commissions paid to lottery ticket sales agents. A state that has control over and responsibility for online and instant lottery games must file Form 1099-NEC to report commissions paid, whether directly or indirectly, to licensed sales agents. For example, State X retains control over and liability for online and instant lottery games. For online ticket sales, State X pays commissions by allowing an agent to retain 5% of the ticket proceeds the agent remits to State X. For instant ticket sales, State X pays commissions by providing tickets to the agent for 5% less than the proceeds to be obtained by the agent from the sale of those tickets. If the commissions for the year total $600 or more, they must be reported in box 1 of Form 1099-NEC. See Rev. Rul. 92-96, 1992-2 C.B. 281.

Payments made on behalf of another person. For payments reportable under section 6041, if you make a payment on behalf of another person, who is the source of the funds, you may be responsible for filing Form 1099-NEC. You are the payor for information reporting purposes if you perform management or oversight functions in connection with the payment, or have a significant economic interest in the payment (such as a lien). For example, a bank that provides financing to a real estate developer for a construction project maintains an account from which it makes payments for services in connection with the project. The bank performs management and oversight functions over the payments and is responsible for filing information returns for payments of $600 or more paid to contractors. For more information, see Regulations section 1.6041-1(e).

State or local sales taxes. If state or local sales taxes are imposed on the service provider and you (as the buyer) pay them to the service provider, report them on Form 1099-NEC as part of the reportable payment. However, if sales taxes are imposed on you (as the buyer) and collected from you by the service provider, do not report the sales taxes on Form 1099-NEC.

Statements to Recipients

If you are required to file Form 1099-NEC, you must furnish a statement to the recipient. For more information about the requirement to furnish a statement to each recipient, and truncation, see part M in the 2020 General Instructions for Certain Information Returns.

You can furnish each recipient with a single payee statement reporting all Form 1099-NEC payment types. You are required to furnish the payee statements and file with the IRS by January 31.

Truncating recipient's TIN on payee statements.

Pursuant to Regulations section 301.6109-4, all filers of this form may truncate a recipient's TIN (social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN)) on payee statements. Truncation is not allowed on any documents the filer files with the IRS. A payer's TIN may not be truncated on any form. See part J in the 2020 General Instructions for Certain Information Returns.

Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) Filing Requirement Checkbox

Check the box if you are a U.S. payer that is reporting on Form(s) 1099 (including reporting payments on this Form 1099-NEC) as part of satisfying your requirement to report with respect to a U.S. account for chapter 4 purposes as described in Regulations section 1.1471-4(d)(2)(iii)(A). In addition, check the box if you are a Foreign Financial Institution (FFI) reporting payments to a U.S. account pursuant to an election described in Regulations section 1.1471-4(d)(5)(i)(A). Finally, check the box if you are an FFI making the election described in Regulations section 1.1471-4(d)(5)(i)(A) and are reporting a U.S. account for chapter 4 purposes to which you made no payments during the year that are reportable on any applicable Form 1099 (or are reporting a U.S. account to which you made payments during the year that do not reach the applicable reporting threshold for any applicable Form 1099).

2nd TIN Not.

You may enter an "X" in this box if you were notified by the IRS twice within 3 calendar years that the payee provided an incorrect TIN. If you mark this box, the IRS will not send you any further notices about this account.

However, if you received both IRS notices in the same year, or if you received them in different years but they both related to information returns filed for the same year, do not check the box at this time. For purposes of the two-notice-in-3-years rule, you are considered to have received one notice and you are not required to send a second “B” notice to the taxpayer on receipt of the second notice. See part N in the 2020 General Instructions for Certain Information Returns for more information.

For information on the TIN Matching System offered by the IRS, see the 2020 General Instructions for Certain Information Returns.

Corrections to Form 1099-NEC

If you need to correct a Form 1099-NEC that you have already sent to the IRS:

- For paper forms, see the 2020 General Instructions for Certain Information Returns, part H; or
- For electronic corrections, see Pub. 1220.

If you are filing a correction on a paper form, do not check the VOID box on the form. A checked VOID box alerts IRS scanning equipment to ignore the form and proceed to the next one. Your correction will not be entered into IRS records if you check the VOID box.

Recipient's TIN

Enter the recipient's TIN using hyphens in the proper format. SSNs, ITINs, and ATINs should be in the XXX-XX-XXXX format. EINs should be in the XX-XXXXXXX format. You should make every effort to ensure that you have the correct type of number reported in the correct format.

Account Number

The account number is required if you have multiple accounts for a recipient for whom you are filing more than one Form 1099-NEC. The account number is also required if you check the “FATCA filing requirement” box. See FATCA Filing Requirement Checkbox, earlier. Additionally, the IRS encourages you to designate an account number for all Forms 1099-NEC that you file. See part L in the 2020 General Instructions for Certain Information Returns.

Box 1. Nonemployee Compensation

Enter nonemployee compensation (NEC) of $600 or more. Include fees, commissions, prizes and awards for services performed as a nonemployee, other forms of compensation for services performed for your trade or business by an individual who is not your employee, and fish purchases for cash. Include oil and gas payments for a working interest, whether or not services are performed. Also include expenses incurred for the use of an entertainment facility that you treat as compensation to a nonemployee. Federal executive agencies that make payments to vendors for services, including payments to corporations, must report the payments in this box. See Rev. Rul. 2003-66.

What is NEC? If the following four conditions are met, you must generally report a payment as NEC.

- You made the payment to someone who is not your employee.
- You made the payment for services in the course of your trade or business (including government agencies and nonprofit organizations).
- You made the payment to an individual, partnership, estate, or, in some cases, a corporation.
- You made payments to the payee of at least $600 during the year.

Self-employment tax. Generally, amounts reportable in box 1 are subject to self-employment tax. If payments to individuals are not subject to this tax and are not reportable elsewhere on Form 1099-NEC, report the payments in box 3 of Form 1099-MISC. However, report section 530 (of the Revenue Act of 1978) worker payments in box 1 of Form 1099-NEC.

Examples. The following are some examples of payments to be reported in box 1.

- Professional service fees, such as fees to attorneys (including corporations), accountants, architects, contractors, engineers, etc.
- Fees paid by one professional to another, such as fee-splitting or referral fees.
- Payments by attorneys to witnesses or experts in legal adjudication.
- Payment for services, including payment for parts or materials used to perform the services if supplying the parts or materials was incidental to providing the service. For example, report the total insurance company payments to an auto repair shop under a repair contract showing an amount for labor and another amount for parts, if furnishing parts was incidental to repairing the auto.
- Commissions paid to nonemployee salespersons that are subject to repayment but not repaid during the calendar year.
- A fee paid to a nonemployee, including an independent contractor, or travel reimbursement for which the nonemployee did not account to the payer, if the fee and reimbursement total at least $600. To help you determine whether someone is an independent contractor or an employee, see Pub. 15-A.
- Payments to nonemployee entertainers for services. Use Form 1042-S, Foreign Person's U.S. Source Income Subject to Withholding, for payments to nonresident aliens.
- Exchanges of services between individuals in the course of their trades or businesses. For example, an attorney represents a painter for nonpayment of business debts in exchange for the painting of the attorney's law offices. The amount reportable by each on Form 1099-NEC is the FMV of his or her own services performed. However, if the attorney represents the painter in a divorce proceeding, this is an activity that is unrelated to the painter's trade or business. The attorney must report on Form 1099-NEC the value of his or her services. But the painter need not report on Form 1099-NEC the value of painting the law offices because the work is in exchange for legal services that are separate from the painter's business.
- Taxable fringe benefits for nonemployees. For information on the valuation of fringe benefits, see Pub. 15-B, Employer's Tax Guide to Fringe Benefits.
- Gross oil and gas payments for a working interest.
- Payments to an insurance salesperson who is not your common law or statutory employee. See Pub. 15-A for the definition of employee. However, for termination payments to former insurance salespeople, see the instructions for box 3 of Form 1099-MISC.
- Directors' fees as explained under Directors' fees, earlier.
- Commissions paid to licensed lottery ticket sales agents as explained under Commissions paid to lottery ticket sales agents, earlier.
- Payments to section 530 (of the Revenue Act of 1978) workers. See the TIP under Independent contractor or employee, earlier.
- Fish purchases for cash. See Fish purchases, earlier.

Illustrated Example

The completed Form 1099-NEC illustrates the following example. Z Builders is a contractor that subcontracts drywall work to Ronald Green, a sole proprietor who does business as Y Drywall. During the year, Z Builders pays Mr. Green $5,500. Z Builders must file Form 1099-NEC because they paid Mr. Green $600.00 or more in the course of their trade or business, and Mr. Green is not a corporation.

Nonqualified deferred compensation (section 409A) income. Include in box 1 the amount of all deferrals (plus earnings) reported in box 14 of Form 1099-MISC that are includible in gross income because the nonqualified deferred compensation (NQDC) plan fails to satisfy the requirements of section 409A. See Regulations sections 1.409A-1 through 1.409A-6.

Golden parachute payments. A parachute payment is any payment that meets all of the following conditions.

1. The payment is in the nature of compensation.
2. The payment is to, or for the benefit of, a disqualified individual. A disqualified individual is one who at any time during the 12-month period prior to and ending on the date of the change in ownership or control of the corporation (the disqualified individual determination period) was an employee or independent contractor and was, in regard to that corporation, a shareholder, an officer, or a highly compensated individual.
3. The payment is contingent on a change in the ownership of a corporation, the effective control of a corporation, or the ownership of a substantial portion of the assets of a corporation (a change in ownership or control).
4. The payment has (together with other payments described in (1), (2), and (3), above, made to the same individual) an aggregate present value of at least three times the individual's base amount.

For more details, see Regulations section 1.280G-1. Also, see Rev. Proc. 2003-68, which is on page 398 of Internal Revenue Bulletin 2003-34 at IRS.gov/irb/2003-34_IRB#RP-2003-68, concerning the valuation of stock options for purposes of golden parachute payment rules. For the treatment of unvested shares of restricted stock, see Rev. Rul. 2005-39, available at IRS.gov/irb/2005-27_IRB#RR-2005-39.

Independent contractor. Enter in box 1 the total compensation, including any golden parachute payment. For excess golden parachute payments, see the instructions for box 13 of Form 1099-MISC.

For employee reporting of these payments, see Pub. 15-A.

Payments not reported in box 1. Do not report in box 1:

- Expense reimbursements paid to volunteers of nonprofit organizations;
- Deceased employee wages paid in the year after death (report in box 3 of Form 1099-MISC) (See Deceased employee's wages, earlier);
- Payments more appropriately described as rent (report in box 1 of Form 1099-MISC), royalties (report in box 2 of Form 1099-MISC), other income not subject to self-employment tax (report in box 3 of Form 1099-MISC), interest (use Form 1099-INT);
- The cost of current life insurance protection (report on Form W-2 or Form 1099-R);
- An employee's wages, travel or auto allowance, or bonuses and prizes (report on Form W-2); and
- The cost of group-term life insurance paid on behalf of a former employee (report on Form W-2).

Box 4. Federal Income Tax Withheld

Enter backup withholding. For example, persons who have not furnished their TINs to you are subject to withholding on payments required to be reported in box 1. For more information on backup withholding, including the rate, see part N in the 2020 General Instructions for Certain Information Returns.

Boxes 5–7. State Information

These boxes are provided for your convenience only and need not be completed for the IRS. Use the state information boxes to report payments for up to two states. Keep the information for each state separated by the dash line. If you withheld state income tax on this payment, you may enter it in box 5. In box 6, enter the abbreviated name of the state and the payer's state identification number. In box 7, you may enter the amount of the state payment.

If a state tax department requires that you send them a paper copy of this form, use Copy 1 to provide information to the state tax department. Give Copy 2 to the recipient for use in filing the recipient's state income tax return.
